FRESH FLOODS ADD TO PUEBLO'S HORRORS

Skagway Reservoir Goes Out and Rain Handicaps Works

100 BODIES RECOVERED

Many More Believed to Lie Beneath Mud and Debris That Covers Devastated Area.

Pueblo, Col., June 6.—Three times in the last 48 hours the waters of the Arkansas river, breaking from their course, have inundated the greater part of this city with the resultant loss of probably not less than 250 lives and property damage estimated at $10,000,000

To the first flood of Friday night and Saturday morning this loss of life and damaged property is, for the most part, due. The second and third floods of this morning and this afternoon found little of value not already ruined by the waters and were looked upon with concern only because they hindered rescue and reconstruction work.

A downpour of rain, amounting almost to a cloudburst, again is falling last night Whether or not the rain followed the course of the Arkansas river above Pueblo could not be learned because of the darkness If it did, undoubtedly another rapid rise in the river is probable.

First estimates of the dead, based upon reports from excited eye-witnesses who told of seeing hundreds of bodies swept through the streets of the city, are considered today greatly exaggerated. While no official count of the fatalities has been attempted, it is stated that the death list probably will not exceed 250, if it goes that high.

One hundred bodies have been recovered, but it is feared that when the mud and debris, which fills the streets and buildings in the flooded area, are cleared away more bodies will be found.

Relief work is progressing under the direction of Red Cross officials and Gov. Oliver H. Shoup. The greatest danger at the present time is said to be from pestilence. Food is being rationed. Those without funds with which to purchase provisions are being cared for by the Red Cross and other agencies. The Red Cross fed 600 persons hourly yesterday. To those who have funds military permits are being issued, allowing the holder to buy from local stores.

Pure water is at a premium. People have been warned to boil water before drinking In anticipation of a typhus epidemic a large quantity of typhoid anti-toxin has been called for and will be administered as soon as available.

The flood yesterday afternoon came just when Pueblo was beginning to recover from the earlier disaster, and was due to the breaking of the Skagway reservoir between Florence and Victor. Within an hour the swollen torrent of the Arkansas river had again inundated the low-lying sections of the city. At 4.30 o'clock the waters had risen to a point only a few inches below the high mark of Friday night's flood.

Trees and masses of debris came down from the country above Pueblo on the crest of the new floods.

When the first report of the new flood came soldiers conducted a hurried search of buildings and in one found a woman standing in water up to her armpits and holding above her head a baby five hours old The mother and baby were taken to a hospital where it was said they could not live.

Governor Shoup and Col. Patrick Hamrock, commander of the State constabulary, arrived yesterday to take charge of the situation. Immediately upon their arrival it was decided that Colonel Hamrock's troops, consisting of Colorado National Guard units and State Rangers, will assume all responsibility for law and order during the emergency.

Along the railroad tracks from Colorado Springs to Pueblo are scenes of desolation and disaster, fences down great trees uprooted, deep gullies torn in the fields by the rushing torrents.

Five hundred persons are in temporary hospitals as a direct result of the flood, according to J L. Moorehead, secretary to the Governor. There are cases of chicken pox, typhoid pneumonia, diphtheria and one or two cases of insanity

The entire city is under martial law 150 troops are patrolling the city armed with rifles and army pistols, with orders that all persons are to be kept out of the restricted district and with orders to shoot if necessary

Troops have received orders to prevent all visitors from entering the city No persons not members of the National Guard or coming here for the purpose of enlisting in the National Guard will be admitted.

The Red Cross yesterday cooked a carload of meat to keep it from spoiling and this will be distributed to the needy.

The number of those drowned in the Missouri Pacific and Denver and Rio Grande trans cannot be learned nor can the identity of most of the bodies recovered be established.

Make Dirt Fly

Clean Up Paint Up Week Opens Auspiciously

With vim and vigor clean up and paint up week was launched today. The work of making dirt fly was begun early today and judging from present indications there will be no abatement in the work. Back yards, cellars and garrets are going to receive a general renovation during the week and many houses are going to receive a fresh coat of paint.

Many painters already are busy on the job and many more contracts are slated to be awarded for painting this week. The lawns are not being overlooked and a general overhauling of most premises in the city is on the program. The children also are lending a helping hand in the work. It is believed that the judges of the contest will have a hard time selecting the winners. The slogan, of the participants is, "Chase away the dirt" and more refuse will be carted off this week to the dump pile than never before and incidentally more places will be made sanitary than ever before. The health department, city engineer's office are co operating in the work and behind them are representatives of various organizations of the city.

WILL FREEHOLDERS VOTE ON BOND ISSUE?

Provisions of Code Cited by Attorney Interested

TO LOOK INTO MATTER

Expected City Council Will Order Corporation Attorney to Give Legal Opinion on Question

Regarding the proposed bond issue of $300,000 the question has been raised by some attorneys of the city as to whether or not the issue of the bonds should be sumbitted to the freeholders of the city and how an election shall be ordered.

Before any bonds are issued it is expected that city council will authorize the corporation attorney to look up the law on the subject and determine whether or not it will be necessary to call an election on this matter.

The following will be interesting in connection with the subject:

Provisions of the Code as to the issue of bonds by municipalities, etc., section 3082. Whenever it is proposed by any city or town to issue bonds of such city or town for any purpose, the council or the board of control, if there be one, shall adopt an ordinance, reciting the expediency of borrowing money by the municipality and the issuance of bonds therefor, the amount of such issue, the length of time for which they are to run, the interest to be paid thereon, and the purpose for which the money realized therefrom is to be used, and if for the purpose of borrowing money and issuing bonds under the provisions of class (b), section one hundred and twenty-seven of the Constitution, and not to be included within the otherwise authorized indebtedness of such municipality, said ordinance shall state that fact, as well as the specific undertaking for which the said money is proposed to be borrowed, and said bonds are to be issued, which ordinance in any case if passed by a council, shall be upon the recorded affirmative vote of a majority of all of the members elected to the council, or to each branch thereof, where there are two branches; and if such ordinance be vetoed by the mayor, it may be adopted notwithstanding such veto, in the manner prescribed by section one hundred and twenty-three of the Constitution. After the adoption of such ordinance, a certified copy thereof shall be forthwith presented to the corporation or circuit court having jurisdiction over such city or town or to the judge thereof in vacation.

Revisor's Note.—The act from which this section is taken (Acts 1912, p. 673) applied to bonds issued under clause B, of section 127, of the Constitution only The revised section applies "whenever it is proposed by any city or town to issue bonds of such city or town FOR ANY PURPOSE, but if conforms to the act as to what is to be stated in the ordinance if the purpose is to issue bonds under clause B, of section 127, of the Constitution.

Sections 3083, 3084, 3085, 3086, 3087, 3088, provide that the question of the issue of such bonds shall be submitted to the people, and how an election shall be ordered and held to allow a vote to be taken upon the question of the issue of bonds for any purpose. It may be well, before the issuance of bonds, to inquire into the legal effect of these provisions upon our proposed bond issue.

Talks To Baraca class

John Garland Pollard Speaks on "Duties of Christian Citizenship"

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Hon. John Garland Polard, former attorney geenral of Virginia, delivered a most notable address before the J. R. N. Curtin Memorial Baraca Class on, "The Duties of Christian Citizenship." At least one hundred and seventy six men were present, besides others. The speaker was introduced in a most felicitous speech by Judge C. E. Nicol, The address was replete with wit and humor. He urged upon his hearers the exceeding importance of having part in the politics of the day if our government, both state and city, is to be conducted, according to the best business principles.

We ought to inquire concerning the recaord of the man who is running for office. There should be careful urging as to moral character and capability, and under no circumstances, should we allow ourselves to be dragooned into voting for a man whom our conscience does not approve. Mr. Pollard thought that no man should be considered worthy of our suffrage who refused to declare his policy on public issues, for many an unworthy man he declared has thus gone into office. He felt that men of vision and high ideals are needed today specially.

He urged his hearers to associate themselves more closely with the political conditions of the day in order that proper methods and policies should prevail.

Mr. Polard's address was impressive because he has alway stood for the highest standards, in his political career in the Old Dominion. Judge Robinson Moncure, of the Corporation Court, was present and spoke briefly. The pastor, Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson, a friend of the speaker of many years, voiced the appreciation of the class in the address of Mr. Pollard. Altogether it was a red letter day in the history of the Baraca Class.

Pay Your Auto Tax

After Friday Those Who Have Failed To Pay City Tax To Be Cited Into Court

The city automobile tax is now due and payable at the office of Mayor J. M. Duncan. The mayor reports that owners of automobiles have been slow in coming forward and paying their license tax.

Instructions have been issued to the police to cite all owners of automobiles into the police court after Friday, June 10, who have not the 1921 city automobile license tag. It is expected that there will be a large number of persons cited unless most of the automobile owners this week seem to have entirely overlooked the fact that they have to pay a city as well as a state license.

STATEMENT OF HOSPITAL FINANCES

Explanation Given of How Recent Bequests Are Used

APPEAL FOR $10,000

To Pay For X-Ray Plant and Other Urgent Needs For This Institution

As president of the board of lady managers of the Alexandria Hospital, in their name, and in the name of our board of trustees I feel called to make a statement to remove all impression that the management of the hospital has come before the generous people of Alexandria asking help unnecessarily, or in excess of immediate necessities. There is an impression with many of our people, that assistance to meet great wanted needs, such as was an x-ray plant, money to paint the interior of the hospital, repair the heating plant and etc., should not have called for help since the hospital had been blessed by generous bequests from friends, as by Mr. Ahern, Miss Mary Lee and lately by the magnificent bequest of Mr. McKnight Baldwin, now when it is explained, the two first gifts of Mr. Ahern and Miss Lee when realized will be used to liquidate the debt on the hospital building, which debt is now being carried by friends. The bequest of Mr. Baldwin's, will not be available for nearly a year and when realized according to the interpretation of the will will be invested and only the income be used for the upkeep of hospital work, assisting in rendering more efficient and beneficial help to our people, Now when our board of trustees appealed to the people, asking the gift of $10,000 so needed to install the x-ray plant, and to meet the absolute needs for the good of the hospital, they were met with this expression of doubt as to the necessity of help being needed, consequently only a little less than half was raised, supplemented by $1,000 raised through the efforts of the auxiliary to the hospital board, under the president, Mrs. Julian Burke, Jr., the fine x-ray plant was installed, but we are still short of means to accomplish the absolutely needed work that must be done for the preservation as it should be of our beautiful building. The greatest disappointment is our lack of funds to equip a laboratory, a crying need for any well appointed hospital, a necessity in our hospital which is crippling the work of our efficient pathologist Dr. Latine. I appeal to the heart of some friends to equip the laboratory, as a memorial to some dear one. $1,000 would do this and also meet a small deficit for our work. Submitted to our many friends.

SEEK TOTAL OF $6200 FOR S. A. APPEAL

To Discontinue Tambourine Collection if Amount is Secured

PURPOSE OF FUND

Contemplate Extending Scope of Alexandria Work—Tag Day Next Saturday For Cause.

Comment has been made regarding the collections still being taken in tambourines. Had the $6 200.00 been subscribed immediately the street collections would cease. With the amount desired, not only the current expenses are to be met, but also payment on the building and to own a building to conduct the work of the local branch is the greatest possible advantage, and it is also planned to extend the scope of the Alexandria work to measure up to a large number of the national plans of the Salvation Army and until the public can be impressed with the idea of an annual subscription such as the local board is engaged in at present, it will be necessary to supplement the amount subscribed.

Every effort in the meanwhile will be made to realize the full sum of $6 200.00, and to further that purpose, a tag day will be held on Saturday, June 11.

The Clean-up Drive.

The American home is the bulwark of America's greatness. The hidden springs from which flow out the nation's power, its art, music, literature, commerce and trade, are all within the sanctum of its family life. Considered in this light, those homely things of every-day life we call the sitting-room, the dining room, the parlor, the kitchen, the porch, the lawn and the garden assume a new and tremendous significance. They mean not merely food and clothes and shelter for a lot of animals; they mean rather the treasury of all things fine and noble which make for the happiness of a lot of men. They are the stuff of which our civilization is made.

So when a thing like the clean-up week which Alexandria is entering upon today comes along, there should be no disposition to dismiss it with a waive of the hand as a pleasantry good for women and children and idle hands. Alexandria's civic life is no stronger, no cleaner, no better than the average Alexandria home. It is of much import to all who live here, whether they be property owners or not, that the city, in its outward appearances, should present a spectacle of clean, orderly streets, green, well-kept lawns, fresh-painted and attractive houses, thrifty and promising gardens. Such cleanliness and care increase the value of the city's property, inculcate pride in the city's citizenship, furnish inspiration for those engaged in their several lines of business including that vast business of living well, and improve the common environment which is moulding the future manhood and womanhood of the community. Let not Alexandria's richest or most prominent citizen scorn to put his hand to a broom or brush in this common clean-up effort; let not the city's poorest or most obscure inhabitant imagine that his service will not count.

Alexandria is an old and historic city. Thousands of visitors and tourists include it in their travels because of its many interesting landmarks. From now on until the late fall they will come in ever increasing numbers. The sort of impression they gain and carry away with them depends largely upon the way Alexandria responds to the appeal this week to clean up, paint up and plant up.

Bring on the brooms. Fetch forth the brushes and the paint. Roll out the old lawn mower. Take down the spade, rake and hoe. There should be no idle hands and no idle moments in the old city this week.

Another Challenge.

While not approximating in its dire consequences anything like the three great inundations of Johnstown, Galveston and Dayton, the flood which has just swept down upon Pueblo, Colorado, sending to a watery grave more than 500 people and destroying millions of dollars worth of property, sounds another note of warning that this country must sooner or later [illegible] control of floods and the conditions which make for floods throughout the country is a comparatively simple problem of engineering which but for the stupidity of politicians would have been solved long ago, long enough to have saved thousands of lives which have in the meantime been wantonly and wastefully sacrificed.

Engineering authorities can tell eactly the cause of the rise of waters in the Arkansas River which spelled Pueblo's catastrophe. They will say doubtlessly that it was due to the ruthless cutting down of the forests along its sources. Whatever they say, they wil lsay that the cause could have been removed, the conditions controlled, and the calamity averted by engineering methods properly directed.

Engineers saved Belgium's civilian population during the World War. Engineers have taken the waste lands of our own great west and made them by irrigation to blossom as a rose, Engineers appointed by the League of Nations are busy studying as to how engineering can contribute to the prevention of wars through removing the causes of international strife. Certainy engineering in America is big enough and brave enough to tackle the problem of flood prevention and control.

A DAILY THOUGHT

You remember the story of the King who had a beautiful garden and in which there grew a tree that bore Golden Apples.

Someone commenced stealing the apples and they set a guard to watch for the thief. One of the guards awoke early one morning to find a Golden Bird flapping at them. He shot an arrow at the bird, but only shot away one golden feather.

The golden feather was taken before the king. Courtiers declared it worth more than all the value of his kingdom. But the king said, "One feather is of no use to me. I must have the whole bird."

Some of us—possibly you, can profit by the adoption of the King's point of view. We start out in the fresh morning of our Business Life, the fires of Ambition burning bright ly, the steam of Mental Energy pushing us along purposefully.

We accomplish something. Perhaps we become quite successful in a certain profession, or a certain line of industry. Or we make a good record in a certain position.

But then we slow up. We're content with a measure of success. But we don't develop All the possibilities We don't go as far as we could go if we gave no ear to the siren songs of ease and enjoyment.

Be like the King of old. Say with him, whatever your individual line of achievement. "I must have the whole bird."

DEMPSEY-CARPENTIER FIGHT IS O. K. WITH UNCLE SAM

Washington, June 6.—Attorney General Daugherty will not interfere with plans for the Dempsey Carpentier fight, and a deaf ear will be turned to appeals asking the Government to stop the fray, it was officially declared at the Department of Justice today.

The formal protest of the Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts, head of the International Reform Bureau, sent to the Attorney General from Lincoln, Nebr., asking him to prevent the fight, had not reached the Department early today.

THE FEAST OF WEEKS OR SHABUOTH

The Feast of Weeks or Shabuoth will be observed this year in the synagos on Sunday, June 12th, and in more orthodox congregations the following day also, June 13th.

Originally Shabuoth was an agricultural festival in which the gathering of the spring wheat was used as an occasion for special services of thanksgiving. A later tradition associates this day with the revelation of God at Mt. Sinai when the law was revealed unto Moses. By this revelation Israel was summoned from among the nations of the earth to become the messenger of that law of humanity and under the inspiration of this election, to stay the floods of sin and corruption that threaten to sweep ovr the earth. As a result of Jew hopes that zeal for the service his example of righteousness, the of God, which is to do justly and to Jew hopes that zeal for the service love mercy, may become the striving of all mankind.

The Reform Synagog stresses this historical feature of the Feast of Weeks as a service of dedication of the Jew to the covenant imposed by his Jewish ancestry on him, to be the teacher and exemplar of the law of love unto humanity.

By means of this symbolization and idealization of the Shabuoth festival Reform Congregations have utilized it as the Confirmation Day wherein the young men and women pledge themselves anew to continue the covenant of their fathers and to exemplify in their lives and conduct the spirit of justice and humanity to which they have been called by reason of their Jewish birth.

Confirmaton Day has a further significance for the children. It marks the culmination of the instruction which they have received in the religious school, in the tenets of their faith and in the Bible and other Jewish history and literature.

Confirmation services are followed by a reception at the home of the confirmands or in the religious schools where friends and relatives join with parents in exchanging greetings of felicitation on this event ful epoch in the lives of the boys and girls graduated from the religious school and now qualified to assume the responsibilities of congregational membership.

Charleston, W. Va., June 6.—Brooks Monday, 17, president of the junior class of the Charleston High School, was drowned while swimming in the Kanawah river yesterday.

An Announcement by The Studebaker Corporation of America

Eight months ago, when the costs of material and labor appeared to have reached their peak, we made substantial reductions in the prices of Studebaker cars. These reductions were in anticipation of our ability, after the turn of the year, to purchase materials and to fabricate them at lower costs.

The expected savings have been realized.

With them, other savings have been made, as a result of the greatly increased volume which Studebaker has this year enjoyed.

During the first five months of 1921, our volume of business has exceeded that of any other automobile manufacturer except Ford.

The Studebaker plants are running at capacity with unfilled orders on hand for over 7,000 cars.

In this quarter we shall produce 21,000 automobiles against 11,000 in the corresponding period of last year. This is an increase of approximately 100 per cent.

No other automobile manufacturer is making a comparable showing.

We believe that the confidence of the buying public, which has made and is making this record possible, will continue, because it is supported by the quality and value of our products, and these we shall uphold.

We expect that as a consequence the present economical and efficient production basis can be maintained and that we are justified in making further reductions in the prices of Studebaker cars.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Charlottesville.—While attempting to rescue a little girl, Marie Rosser, who was being swept down a stream, swollen into a raging torrent following a heavy rainfall, James M. Hale, merchant and postmaster at Repton Mills for the past six years, lost his own life late Friday afternoon. After a search of eight hours, the body was found about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The girl, as she came floating towards a bridge, was forced over to the left side of the stream and into a sort of eddy which had formed. Here she was caught and pulled out of the water by a bystander.

Charlottesville.—On Saturday a chapter of the National Engineering Fraternity, Tau eBta Pi, was installed at the University of Virginia, after many years of petitioning by the local society, Sigma Beta Phi.

Norfolk.—Striking seamen early yesterday morning raided the American steamer Mitchell lying off Sewalls Point. Thirty men in the party boarded the ship, overpowered the guard, and beat up fifteen members of the crew. They made their escape in a launch in which they came alongside and headed in the direction of Newport News. According to Chief Officer Henry Lea Dodge, temporarily in command of the ship in the absence of the master, the marauders announced they were strikers, and proposed to "drive everybody from American ships."

Danville, Va.—A cloudburst which broke over Stuart caused severe damage yesterday. Conservative estimates put the downpour at seven inches in two hours. Brooks assumed proportions of torrents and Mayo river inundated the lowlands. A lake formed at the Stuart railway station, two piers of the building being washed away. A cow was washed into the Mayo river, went down stream half a mile over a dam but succeeded in swimming out unharmed.

Three United States Army airplanes are on the way to Pueblo last night from Dodge City, Kan. According to Colonel Hamrock, the machines will be used for observation and scouting to verify reports of further flood dangers.

Thousands of persons were cared for last night in churches and court houses at the Congress Hotel and in private residences.

The city has been without light, gas and water since the flood came Friday night. Candles and kerosene lamps are at a premium.

All fires in the city are out. Those which lighted the city last night did no great damage.

Every railroad line into the city was out of commission, with many miles of roadbed washed out. Within the city practically all of the roadbed stroyed.

One artesian well flowing lithia water was the only source of supply for drinking water in North Pueblo yesterday. The city water supply is polluted and instructions have been issued to use only boiled water.

Lights were to be supplied last night in the flooded business district with power from the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company plant.

Reports are numerous of miraculous escapes from the waters. Many prominent business men and women who waited until the last moment to flee narrowly escaped with their lives. Still others are reported missing.

The railroad yards are a sight beggaring description. Freight cars and rail equipment of all description are piled in a hideous, foul smelling mass. River debris covers the wreckage. The turbid waters swirl and rave through the rails and ties.

The flooded section of Pueblo is carpeted with a thick, slimy layer of mud and debris. Water rose to the level of the street lights in many places.

Merchants face serious embarrassment because of the tremendous stock loss one big department store facing a stock loss alone of $250,000.

The Nuckolls Packing Company lost virtually everything, its total running more than $1,000,000.

Gast said the total property damage will exceed $10,000,000, while others on his committee said he was far too conservative.

But despite the terrible disaster, Pueblo is fighting to regain its feet. A spirit of optimism prevails and with the arrival here yesterday of outside assistance a greater degree of confidence is felt.

SPORTS

Before the largest crowd of the season, the Dreadnaughts triumphed over the crack Maylewood of Baltimore yesterday, in the fastest and most interesting game played at Baggetts Field this season, score 8 to 2. The visitors scored both their counters in the first session, by virtue of 3 hits and 2 errors, but from that time on Lefty Snead held the Monumental lads at bay, only two hits being garnished off his delivery in the next eight frames.

The locals gathered in one run in the first inning on hits by Dick Williams and Wop Devers, and tied the count in the third session on hits by Tommy Degnan and by Williams second bingle, the tie remaining in force until the sixth by virtue of crack fielding of both clubs, when the big "D's" found their batting eye, successive hits by Devers, Fraser, Alexander, a walk to Stevens, Giles sacrifice fly to deep right, and Kid Snead's timely bingle, resulting in four runs and the old ball game added to the locals long winning column, the wo extra counters in the eighth, coming from the widness of Chick Faith, the visitors hurler. The outstanding feature of the locals were the battery work of Snead and Stevens, the stellar work of Dick Williams at short, hitting of Cap Devers, and a wonderful throw from deep right by Jimmy Alexander, cutting down a runner at third. The Maylewoods presented a fast club, with a good pitcher on the mound, but lacked the fighting spirit after that "hitting" sixth, Ashmier at first and Brandon at third were their stars on the defense, pulling off numerous pretty stops that prevented the "D's" from adding to their total The game was played in the fast time of one hour and thirty-two minutes, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large gathering present.

The Rosebuds A. S. journeyed to Penrose, Arlington county, and defeated the Penrose A. C., by a score of 20 to 10. James Doherty, better known as Tot Back, came back into the prime of life when he held the mound yesterday. The feature of the game was that of Howard Mayhew when he made a Ty Cobb catch. The Rosebuds are open to meet all uniforms teams in Virginia or Washington, including the Alexandria Torpedo Station, the A. A. A. Destroyers A. C., Del Ray A. C., Dreadnaughts, and we also challenge the champions of the Sunday School league. Follow these young men and we assure you of a fine game.

For further information regarding dates for games, see Manager Henry Elemore, 1001 Oronoco street, Alexandria, Va.

The Destroyers A. C. claim a forfeit game from the Clover A. C. as they failed to put in an appearance for their game yesterday. The Destroyers A. C. played the Royal A. C., and won by a score of 7 to 2, Stover, Destroyers' pitcher, held the visitors to two hits and should have had a shutout game to his credit, but errors by his teammates let in two runs. Stover struck out ten men and did not issue a pass. The Destroyers are making it hot for all 16 year old teams in Washington and vicinity. To date they have played eight games, winning six of them and losing one. Yesterday the Destroyers tried out several new players who performed well. Next Sunday the Destroyers will journey to Washington to meet the fastgoing Aztec A. C. This team holds one win over the Destroyers, but the home boys expect to even up next Sunday.

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball nine defeated the Emerald Athletic Club team of Washington, on the Alexandria High School field yesterday by a 14 to 8 score.

The Cardinals line up was as follows: "Sunny Jim" Dwyer, pitcher, "Taddy" Schrafer, catcher; King and Sweeney, first base; Hummer Dickinson College, second base; Bailey, third base; Birch, right field; Frank Owens, left field, and "Soldier" Ludlow, center field. While the above line up is an excellent combination, it would be inferior to the "selections" that was to represent the Cardinals against the Clarendons in yesterday's game (that was canceled by the up county athletes; perhaps they were made wise to whom they would be "bucking" against and did not want their winning streak smashed to smithereens.

It is a certainty that the Cardinals would have been on the Clarendons field ready for action at the appointed time and would have made them play airtight baseball to win.

The Cardinals made 19 hits and outplayed the Emeralds in every way, but a batted ball hit Dwyer on his pitching arm, which caused him to retire from the pitching box in favor of Page. Dwyer was sent to right field, but resumed pitching duties later in the game—relieving Page, who retired to allow "Merry" Ludlow, the "Big D" star all around baseball player who volunteered to aid the Cardinals by playing in right field. He relieved Dwyer in the ninth inning, and struck out the Emerald batters in one, two, three order. Several fast express trains passed the ball field during the afternoon—perhaps "Merry" ahd been watching them, but their speed had nothing on him for he had them beat a mile. The Emeraids made 9 hits and 8 runs—scoring their runs in the third, seventh, and eighth innings. The Cardinals have now buried their hoodoo and are on their way to abseball success. Watch the Cardinals climb.

The ancient joke about the whale swallowing Jonah and not being "able to keep a good man down" has proved a valuable lesson to the Cardinals, although they have received many "whalings" recently, they are now up and doing and will not be kept down either."

PARACHUTE JUMPER LOSES LIFE AT SEA AS THOUSANDS WATCH

Salisbury Beach, Mass., June 6.—With thousands gathered along the beach, Jack Murphy, of Haverhill, known as "Daredevil Jack" Murphy, jumped with a parachute from his airplane yesterday afternoon, and landed in the ocean a considerable distance from shore and drowned in view of the assembled throng.

Murphy was seen to throw up his hands and wave his arms as if in appeal for help. The pilot of the air plane, Mark C. Hoague, who made a safe landing upon the beach, saw Murphy's peril and went to his rescue, Attaching a life preserver to the end of a long rope, he circled over the spot where Murphy was last seen, but apparently he had succumbed quickly.

The crew of the United States Coast Guard Station No. 19, located not far distant, went out in a boat and searched a long time without success.

Murphy and Hoague went up before the fatal flight, for a test of the air and wind. It was discovered that the wind had shifted into the southwest, which meant that his parachute was likely to be carried seaward but Murphy did not want to disappoint the crowd and said he was confident he could hit the beach

Just what caused Murphy to drown is a mystery. Despite the fact that he landed in the water, he had signaled his pilot that he was all right and the latter flew back to land.

WAKEFUL SERVANT SAVES FAMILY'S WHISKY STOCK

Reading, Pa., June 6.—Having a domestic servant who is a light sleeper, saved four barrels of whisky, reported to be worth that many thousands of dolars for Frank P. Lauer, wealthy brewer.

The girl heard a sound like the rolling of a barrel over a cement floor in the basement below her room, and looking out of her window saw burglars at work. They had already moved four barrels, and one was in the side street back of the Lauer mission when she awoke, ready to be carried away.

The girl called for help, and in a few minutes policemen were on the scene. The burglars fled, leaving the whisky behind. Mr. Lauer is head of the Lauer Brewing Co., whose brewery was sealed two weeks ago because its product exceeded legal strength, it is said. The brewery case has not yet been disposed of by Prohibition Commissioner Kramer.

Dublin, June 6.—Early yesterday morning a police patrol was ambuscaded at Magherafelt, County Londonderry. A sergeant was shot dead and a constable seriously wounded.

Another patrol, engaged in tearing down sedition posters at Abbeyfeale, Limerick, was fired upon from a house that had been commandeered. A constable was killed and five constables were wounded.

Saturday evening John Brady, the son of a solicitor, who was sitting with a companion on the seawall in Dublin, was shot and killed by men riding on bicycles. Brady's companion, who was wounded, died later.

Last night auxiliaries are reported to have fired into a crowd in Dublin, killing a young member of Parliament and wounding another man and woman.

Danville Woman Gains 15 Pounds By Taking Tanlac—Can Now Eat Anything

"I thought I would never be well again and was only looking for temporary relief, but Tanlac has put an end to my eight years suffering and built me up fifteen pounds in weight besides, and I just can't find words to express my gratitude," said R. S. Hall, 433 North Ridge St., Danville, Va.

"I suffered from indigestion so bad that everything I ate bloated me until I could hardly breathe and I thought I had heart troubles. Sometimes just as soon as I started eating the pains got so bad I had to stop right then. I am a carpenter, and I was so nervous even the sound of my own hammer and saw upset me. I never got a good night's rest and would get up mornings feeling so weak and bad I couldn't stay on my job regular.

"One day a friend advised me to take Tanlac, so I bought a bottle. Every time I took a dose I seemed to get better and by the time I had taken four bottles I felt like a new man. For the first time in eight years I am eating without suffering. My appetite is so big I can hardly satisfy it and my stomach is in fine condition. My heart and nerves never bother me and I am feeling fine and working every day."
